What the charging papers say

Selected fields transcribed from the summonses and police reports concerning the October 31, 2025 incident. Police case 2025-00416573.

OCTOBER 31, 2025

The issued municipal ticket

Colorado Springs Municipal Court · Citation E1481688 · John Wingo

One charge appears on the ticket. City Code 9.6.101, “DAMAGE TO PROPERTY - PRIVATE/CITY.” Officer Carlos Espinoza, badge 7601, is identified as the serving officer.

Source · Summons.pdf, p. 1 of 2. The officer’s narrative is on p. 2.

OCTOBER 31 RESPONSE

Two descriptions in the police file

Officer Espinoza’s disposition assigns John E1481688 for municipal damage to private property and Felicia Wingo E1481689 for municipal trespass.

Detective Trevor Kenoyer’s supplement says officers issued John a citation for “trespass and damage to property.” The trespass count in this sentence does not appear on John’s issued municipal ticket.

Source · Offense Report.pdf, p. 15 of 22 (Espinoza, report p. 3 of 5) and p. 12 of 22 (Kenoyer, supplement p. 3 of 3).

FILED JULY 24, 2026

The filing in El Paso County Court

Uniform Summons and Complaint · Case 2026M5068 · John Wingo

The form marks Colorado Springs Police Department and El Paso County Court. Charge 1 reads “CRIMINAL MISCHIEF,” section 18-4-501. The second charge field is blank. The description gives an estimated $1,000 in damage and says “REWRITE.” It lists E1481688 as the companion summons.

The service field reads June 22, 2026. The filing stamp reads July 24, 2026. The officer fields list Espinoza, badge 7601, and Kelley, badge 6807.

Source · Summons and Complaint.pdf, p. 1 of 6 (discovery p. 47). The form records a charge and a damage estimate. It does not record a verdict or a final repair cost.